

Institutional Learning Outcomes in Mohawk's Co-Curricular Record

Communication: communicate effectively with others of diverse backgrounds, values and personalities to develop meaningful relationships, share knowledge, manage conflict, solve problems, and foster positive change.

Effective Communication

Collaboration: collaborate productively across networks to enhance knowledge, generate innovative ideas, resolve challenges and respond to change.

Collaboration

Meaningful Interpersonal Relationships

Leadership Development

Critical Thinking & Creative Problem Solving: use creativity, problem solving and critical thinking skills to assess risk, make informed decisions and take appropriate, timely action.

Critical Thinking/Problem Solving

Creativity & Innovation

Continuous Learning: with practical, occupation-specific knowledge, skills and abilities; transferable skills; capacity to use learning technologies to stay current, pursue professional development, and personal renewal opportunities.

Personal, Educational, and Career Development

Technical Competence

Adaptability and Flexibility

Planning and Organization

Responsible Citizen: apply personal, professional and social practices to promote physical, economic, mental and emotional well-being, and also foster civic engagement.

Appreciating Diversity

Self Awareness & Positive Attitude

Healthy Behaviors

Social Responsibility & Civic Engagement

Sustainability & Globalization

Spiritual Awareness

Fiscal Responsibility

CCR Outcome Criteria

- Consistent with other institutions
- Relevant for both College and Employers
- Map to ILOs
- Recognize a broad range of activities
- Weighted evenly